Diphtheria in Paris.

There have been two cases of diphtheria reported to Health Officer Dr. Silas Evans, one the child of Mr. and Mrs. Perry McCord, on South Main; the other the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wright on Limestone avenue. The brother of the little Wright boy was sent home from the city school yesterday to remain until his brother had recovered. Both cases are quarantined.

Musical Concert Tonight.

Every one who can possibly do so should attend the musical concert at the Grand Opera House tonight, given under the direction of Miss Esther Margolen, of this city. Miss Margolen has very generously in the past donated her services to every concert, both charitable and religious, which has been given in Paris, and our people should patronize her liberally tonight. We understand the sale of tickets is very flattering, and a good crowd is assured.

Besides the list of artists mentioned in our last issue who will appear, Miss Margolen has secured Miss Edith Griffith, a violinist who has no superior in this section of the country. It will really be one of the most delightful concerts ever given in the Opera House, and we hope to see a full attendance. Prices are 35 cents to the balcony and 50 cents to the lower floor. Seats at Oberdierfer's.

Real Estate Sale.

John Duley, of Maysville, Ky., reports the sale of 130 acres of land on the Harrod's Creek pike being a part of the Mrs. Hiram Carpenter farm to Chas. Clark at $90.00 per acre. This does not include the part upon which the brick house stands.

Illegal Voting Must Cease.

It is currently reported that it has been framed up for some illegal voting to be done in the third ward in this city in the coming State primary. We do not know whether there is any truth or not in the report, however, we have been authorized to say by Mayor O'Brien and County Attorney Moore that if any illegal voting is done in this city on November 6th, they will do everything in their power to land those engaged in it in the penitentiary.

Hooligans Troubles.

It has been said with much justice that the cardinal principle of American humor is exaggeration. This is shown in its highest form in the inimitable stories of Mark Twain, and reaches its latest vogue in the work of George Ade. The play given at the Elysium this week exploits this side of what may be called national humor, for its exaggerations and abnormal absurdities would not be appreciated or understood in any other country.

The play, "Hooligan's Troubles," is based upon the adventures of that hobo and the weariest Willies who belongs to the same comic family as "The Yellow Kid" and "Sunny Jim."

The play that is woven round the character of Hooligan is an uproarious farce. It is highly improbable, smashes all the unities, is absolutely without shading. Hooligan's figure and make-up set at naught all the laws of anatomy but, with all this, the play is enjoyable and laugh-provoking. The man who can sit through the show without laughing long and loud must be one of a very esoteric temperament. — New Orleans Times-Democrat.
